GUEST LECTURE ON CAREER OPPORTUNITIES IN PHLEBOTOMY

REPORT

Date: 04/02/2026

Department of Zoology and Microbiology organized guest lecture on 4th February, 2026 at 12:00 p.m. in lecture hall no. 204. Topic of the lecture was “Career opportunities in phlebotomy”. Dr. D. S. Kumbhar, Head Department of Zoology welcomed resource person Ms. Aarti Kamble, from Lal path laboratory, Kolhapur. Ms. Kamble thoroughly explained various opportunities after graduation. She also discussed schemes available for students. Students clarified their queries from Ms. Arti Kamble. Phlebotomy is the clinical practice of puncturing a vein (venipuncture) to draw blood for laboratory testing, transfusions, or donations. Becoming a phlebotomist usually requires completing a certificate program, which can take less than a year. Mrs. D. A. Malvekar from Department of Microbiology concluded the programme by vote of thanks. Dr. S. V. Lagade, Ms. A. P. Kani, Dr. B. B. Ghurake successfully managed this activity.

Outcome: 1. Students get information about phlebotomy in which they can pursue their career.
2. Students gained knowledge about phlebotomy.

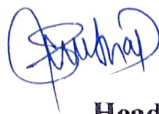

No. of Beneficiaries: 26
