Heritage Walk

Kolhapur city, which is the administrative center of Kolhapur district, is famous for many different reasons. It is also famous as the cultural capital of Maharashtra. Many places here are witnesses to history. The main objective of the Heritage Walk was to introduce the students to these places. Dr. Suresh Shikhar (Head, Department of History, Shree Shahaji Chhatrapati College, Kolhapur) introduced these historical places. On this occasion, Dussehra Chowk in Kolhapur, Nursery Bagh, which is the mausoleum of Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj, Town Hall Museum, Gangadhar Kamble's memorial, some hostels started by Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj, etc. were informed about the students.

- Dasara Chowk: Kolhapur city is known for its royal Dasara celebrations, and the preparations for the festival have begun at the Dasara Chowk ground. Every year, the royal family members arrive here in a vintage Maybach and perform the traditional rituals.
- Mausoleum of Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj (Nursery Bagh): The mausoleum of Rajarshi Shahuji Maharaj is located near the town hall, in the nursery bagh area. There is a meghdambari (ornamental shade) constructed on a raised platform of stone masonry. Good landscaping has also been done around the structure. On the same premises are the temples of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj and Maharani Tarabai. Along with this, there are tombs of many queens of the Karveer royal family.
- Town Hall Museum: This stately neo-gothic structure built in 1872–76 by Charles Mant is a museum displaying artifacts from the Satavahana period discovered in excavations at nearby Bramhapuri Hill. The ancient artifacts include figurines of the Greek god Poseidon, riders on an elephant, a medallion with Hellenistic figures (replica only), pottery fragments, coins, and beads. There is a raised gallery in the museum that has weaponry on display.
- Gangadhar Kamble's Memorial: Shahu Maharaj undertook direct action programs along with making laws for the removal of untouchability. One of these events is Gangaram Kamble's Satya Sudharkar Hotel. Kamble, who was a voter, was brutally beaten for drinking water from the well of the Bawda bungalow. After Maharaj came to Kolhapur, Kamble met him at Sontali and told him about this. Shahu Maharaj punished those concerned. He also instructed Kamble to start a business. After that, Satyashodhak Baburao Yadav gave space for Gangaram

Kamble's 'Satyasudharak Hotel' on Bhausingji Road, which was a highway at the time. Maharaj daily visited this hotel and was instructed to have 'Fakkad' tea; the Sardars and Jagirdars who came with him also had to take tea with him. It is also recorded that Maharaja gave a soda water machine to Gangaram Kamble. Gangaram Kamble's memorial can be seen as a legacy of Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj's untouchability policy.

- Hostel: Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj was known as a true democrat and social reformer in India. He started the process of providing free education to the children of the downtrodden class. He established hostels for poor students in the Kolhapur city. Therefore Kolhapur is known as mother of hostel movement.

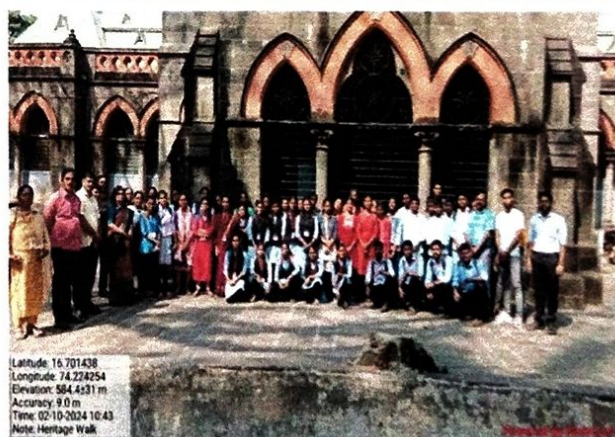

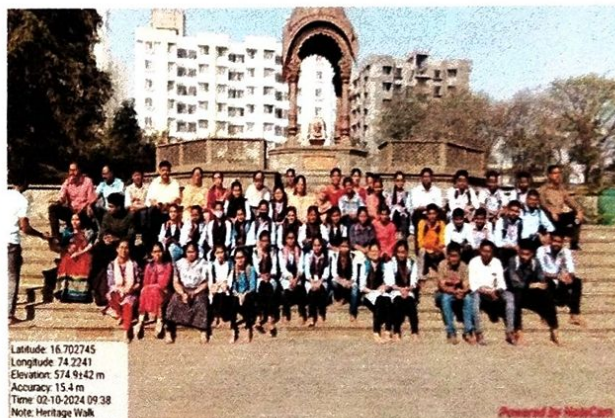

Teachers and students from various departments of the college participated in this heritage walk. Prof. Dr. Supriya Khole (Head, Department of History) and Dr. Nilesh Walkunje (Assistant Professor, Department of History) organized this activity. This Heritage Walk was completed successfully under the guidance of Smt. Sangita Patil (Chairman, College Development Committee) and Prin. Dr. L. D. Kadam.

Outcome

- Participant got information about the history of the Kolhapur city.
