Value Added Course in 'Professional Ethics'

2017-18

Report

The Value Added Course in 'Professional Ethics' is run by Department of Commerce in the academic year 2017-18.

The main objective of this course is to move the students towards development of generic attributes and higher level academic abilities like self-directed learning, collaborative problem solving, team building and identifying, accessing and communicating information.

The purpose of this course is to include a set of skills and competencies that build the foundations for lifelong learning including critical, analytical, problem solving and communication skills as well as the ability to deal with change and diversity, in particular, the tolerance of different views and ideas.

54 students were enrolled in this batch. It was started in October 2017 and students got expert guidance of teachers. All students completed their course successfully.

Value Added Course

Human Values

Sociology Department of the College conducts course for students of all disciplines under the Value Added Course of Human Values. Students need to know about education as well as human values eg. This course is run by the department to recognize humility, responsibility, honesty, respect, gratitude, conscience, sensitive, etc. and to inculcate human value in their behavior and also to make the students aware of the importance of human value while living life.

This course was started to make the students aware that they have some responsibility while living in the society.

Objectives:

1. To introduce human values.
2. To inculcate human values in students.
3. Protection and transmission of human values.

The course was implemented in the academic year 2017-18 from 11/08/2017 to 14/09/2017. 56 students from various branches of the college took admission for the course. The teaching of the prescribed course was completed in the above period. Admitted students were given certificates for completing the course.

The Principal of the College Dr. Khilare guided us to implement the above course.
