

Career Oriented Course in Human Rights Education

Report, (2017 – 2018)

The Career Oriented Course 'Human Rights Education' was run in the college by the Dept. of Economics in the academic year 2017-18 to develop human values as well as career skills among the students.

The tenure of this course was six months. Initially the information of this course was displayed on the notice board so that the students could know the information of this course. The syllabus of this course was framed by the incharge of this course. Nine students from BA I, BA II and BA III were admitted for this course.

In the Every Week three lectures for the papers were organized for this course. The Exam of 50 marks for separate three papers was conducted on 23rd Jan. 2018 , 25th Jan. 2018 and 27th Jan. 2018 respectively. The course was very beneficial to the students. They imbibe in them Human Values such as equality, fraternity, brotherhood, national integrity, peace etc.

I am very much thankful to Hon'ble Principle and co-ordination of this course for their kind support and co-operation.
